Alliance for Canadian New Music Projects

ACNMP celebrated its 50th anniversary in 2017. The sponsoring organization was founded in 1967 as the Contemporary Music Showcase Association (CMSA) and incorporated in 1978 as the Alliance for Canadian New Music Projects. In 1997, ACNMP was awarded the Canadian Music Centre and Canadian League of Composers' Friends of Canadian Music Award honouring those who have demonstrated an exceptional commitment to Canadian composers and their music.

Contemporary Showcase

The only festival of its kind in Canada, Contemporary Showcase is devoted entirely to music created by contemporary Canadian composers. It is non-competitive in that no marks are awarded, no ranking is given, and the adjudications take place in an atmosphere that is designed to be informative and supportive. The Contemporary Showcase syllabus is available from the website in English and French at acnmp.ca.

In many Contemporary Showcase centres, outstanding performers are further encouraged through award recognition. Many award recipients of past festivals have gone on to make their mark in the music world. Notable ACNMP award recipients include Jean Stillwell, Scott St. John, Lara St. John, Stewart Goodyear, Measha Brueggengosman, and Blake Pouliot.

On recommendation of the adjudicators, the Showcase committee will select exceptional performers to play at the Showcase concert for their centre, taking into consideration the variety of music styles to be presented, instrumentation, duration, balance, and interest.

We currently have 12 centres across Canada. The organization is recognized as one that is currently encouraging performers, composers, and audiences for the future. No other organization continues to aggressively promote the performance, composition, and study of Canadian contemporary music.

*"Contemporary Showcase . . . one of the more conspicuous guarantors of Canada's music health."
-Robert Everett-Green, Globe and Mail*

Dear Participants in the Contemporary Showcase Festival,

I am delighted to write this letter in encouragement and support of your activities with the Alliance for Canadian New Music Projects. What an exciting project to be involved in! You are the musical story-tellers of today - telling the stories of our time by performing the music of living Canadian composers.

I believe that creating and performing music is a profound privilege. Every time I step into a concert hall, I feel excited that it is still a place where I can enjoy music and reflect on life, while sharing the special experience of music with others who have congregated in the same space. There are so few opportunities in this world to do this - to be present in a moment of musical beauty, undistracted by everything else around us. I encourage you to take a moment to marvel in this opportunity, and also remember that making music is fun!

I started my musical journey in elementary school, where I sang in choir and played the ukulele. Throughout high school, I played trumpet in all sorts of ensembles, and this opened the way to a career in music. I eventually found my way to music composition in my late twenties, and I now enjoy a career as a composer and professor. Outside my own creative work, I also enjoy music as an audience member. There are so many different paths to a life in music – whether it blossoms into a career in music, or becomes part of a rich life full of many hobbies. I hope that you all become life-long music lovers!

Enjoy your time in the Contemporary Showcase Festival – make the most of your own music-making opportunities, and enjoy the opportunity to hear your peers create music.

All my best wishes,

Emilie LeBel
